

Name _____

Vocabulary Study Guide

Complete 1-3 activities

You are required to complete one study guide per week for 10pts. Study Guides are due on Thursdays of each week. You may earn up to 20 points extra credit for completing two additional activities (10pts.Per activity).

Vocabulary Choices

Create a foldable for all of your vocabulary words. Write the word, definition, the part of speech, and write a synonym/antonym for each. A picture can help too but not required. Some examples: Step book Flipbook matchbooks	Create acrostic poems for 10 of your vocabulary words. Write each word vertically and then write phrases that help you remember the meaning of the word, horizontally after each letter	Create a matching quiz for the vocabulary words and their complete definitions. Challenge yourself to ask questions that uses the vocabulary word in context as well.
Story Write a story using your vocabulary words. The meanings of the vocabulary words must be evident through the use of context clues. This can be written on a hard copy or on a Chromebook and emailed to your teacher.	FREE SPACE Must get prior approval	If You/Would you questions Write "If you/would you" questions for each vocabulary word. Make sure the correct choice is not noted. Example: If you want to see something exquisite, would you go to a museum or a gas station? (museum) OR Would you rather pet a ferocious monkey or a docile penguin? (docile)
Analogies Write an analogy for each vocabulary word. (Try to use at least two vocabulary words in each analogy) Example: Hot :cold :: on :off	CREATE riddle for each of your spelling word. Give Three clues and a What am I question? Example: I am happy all the time. I like to make people smile. I enjoy being around a crowd. What am I? (jovial)	RESEARCH Conduct a research on your vocabulary words. Determine where the word originates from. List any other forms of the word. Break the word apart and list its syllables, roots, prefixes or suffixes. Make a research fact card for each word. Add any other information about the word that you find important.